

Highlights from Altamaha EMC's 73rd Annual Meeting

Altamaha EMC welcomed a large group of members and their families to its 73rd annual meeting. There were 729 registered members in attendance.

Vidalia City Manager, Bill Torrance, welcomed everyone to Southeastern Technical College. General Manager Jimmy Musgrove, in reporting on the operations of the Cooperative, stated that the Co-op continues to provide reliable, economical electricity and quality customer service to the members. Musgrove discussed the challenges facing electric utilities concerning power cost and supply. He further discussed pending legislation and if passed what effect it will have on consumer's electric bills.

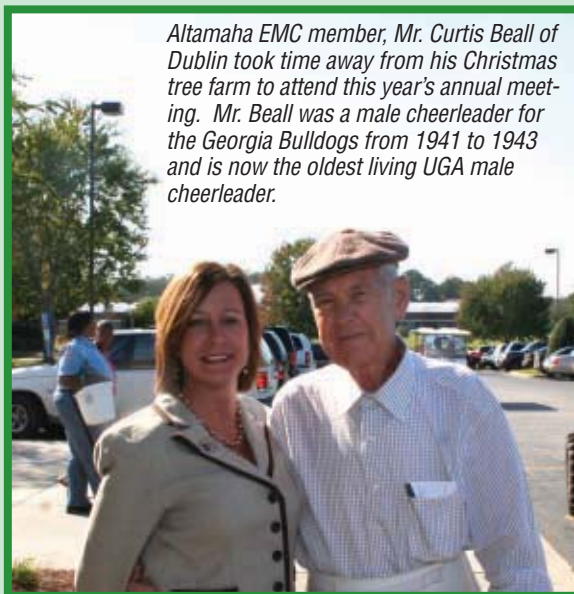

Special recognition was given to the family of James L. Curl, Jr. who passed away on July 22, 2009. Mr. Curl served on the Altamaha EMC Board of Directors for 24 years. Board President, Robert Youmans, presented Mr. Curl's family with a framed resolution honoring his dedication to Altamaha EMC and its members.

Directors Bud Hart, Danny Shepherd and R. Alex Grindler were each re-elected by acclamation to a three-year term on the board. 97 door prizes were awarded and all members and guests were treated to refreshments after the meeting adjourned.

General Manager Jimmy Musgrove presents a resolution honoring Mr. James L. Curl, Jr. to his daughter, Mrs. Jan Raiford, and his widow, Mrs. Dimple Curl.

Altamaha EMC member, Mr. Curtis Beall of Dublin took time away from his Christmas tree farm to attend this year's annual meeting. Mr. Beall was a male cheerleader for the Georgia Bulldogs from 1941 to 1943 and is now the oldest living UGA male cheerleader.

(L-R) President Bob Youmans awarded $50 cash prizes to lucky winners Vivian Snead of Soperton and Jared Dent of Vidalia. Mrs. Inez Horton of Vidalia was the grand prize winner of $100 cash.

97 members went home with a door prize!